-against-

JOHN F. GARGAN,

Defendant.

ORDER

18 Cr. 723 (PGG)

PAUL G. GARDEPHE, U.S.D.J.:

It is hereby ORDERED that the U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons and Kingsbrook Hospital will make the following accommodations for the Defendant while he is detained at Kingsbrook Hospital:

1. Defendant will be permitted to speak by telephone with his counsel – lawyers and staff at Federal Defenders of New York – every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 10:30 a.m. The door to Defendant’s hospital room is to be closed during calls with counsel or in-person conversations with counsel, and no U.S. Marshal, Bureau of Prisons, or contractor personnel is to be in Defendant’s hospital room when he is engaged in conversation with counsel.
2. Twice a week, the U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons will pick up legal mail for the Defendant addressed to Federal Defenders of New York, and will deliver legal mail to Defendant from Federal Defenders of New York.
3. The Defendant cannot chew food in a normal fashion and is at risk of choking. He cannot eat rice, couscous, mashed potatoes, oatmeal and other foods of a similar texture. As to proteins, he is capable of eating scrambled eggs, beef (not shredded), chicken breast, fish sticks or breaded fish, pork chops. As to cooked vegetables, he can eat steamed spinach, asparagus, broccoli and whole potatoes. The Defendant can also eat soft bread, lasagna and other pastas, pizza, pancakes, waffles, yogurt, ice cream, and protein shakes such as Ensure. As to liquids, the Defendant can consume juices of any sort – except for lemon – Pedialyte and chocolate milk. The U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons and Kingsbrook Hospital will ensure that the Defendant is provided food consistent with these requirements.
4. The U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons and Kingsbrook Hospital will ensure that the Defendant receives 2 showers a week.

5. The U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons will maintain pens, pencils, paper, and stamped envelopes addressed to Federal Defenders of New York – all of which are to be provided to the U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons by Federal Defenders of New York – and will make these materials available to Defendant upon request.
6. Subject to security screening, the U.S. Marshal Service and/or the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make available to Defendant books and magazines supplied by Federal Defenders of New York.
7. Subject to security screening, Defendant is to be permitted a change of clothing weekly. The clothing will be supplied by Federal Defenders of New York.
8. Defendant is to be permitted three thirty-minute personal calls per week. These are calls other than to counsel. The door to Defendant's room will remain open during these calls.
9. Defendant is to be permitted a two-hour visit once a week with his domestic partner, Jason Garrett Kimball, during which the door to Defendant's room will remain open.
